

20th Annual

German Norwegian Energy Forum, October 27, 2016

The Paris Agreement – Risks and Opportunities for the Energy Sector

Gemeinschaftshaus der Nordischen Botschaften, Rauchstraße 1, D-10787 Berlin

A seminar organised by the Royal Norwegian Embassy and Innovation Norway

Programme

Moderator: Jørgen Festervoll, ADAPT Consulting AS

- 12:00 Registration, Refreshments and Finger Food
- 12:30 Welcome and Opening Remarks
Kjell-Børge Freiberg, State Secretary, Ministry of Petroleum and Energy
- 12:50 Energy Policy after the Paris Climate Agreement
Rainer Bække, State Secretary, Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy
- 13:20 Summary of the First German Norwegian Energy CEO & Executive Round Table
Dr. Werner Brinker
- 13:30 Climate Goals – Impacts and Challenges for the Energy and Industry Sector
Panel discussion
Svein Richard Brandtzæg (Norsk Hydro), Jan Karl Karlsen (Statoil), Auke Lont (Statnett),
Dr. Karsten Wildberger (EON), Auguste Willems, (Wacker Chemie)
- 14:10 Coffee Break
- 14:50 Generation 2025 – the Medium-Term Role of Conventional and Renewable Energy in Germany
Dr. Andreas Schröter, Executive Vice President & Regional Manager Central Europe &
Mediterranean DNV GL - Energy
- 15:10 Is the Disruption of the Energy Industry yet to come?
Introductory remarks and discussion by Jørgen Kildahl & Eimund Nygaard, CEO, Lyse AS
- 16:00 Coffee Break
- 16:40 What the EU State Aid Guideline means for the Expansion of Renewables
Janosch Abegg, Head of Market Access Renewables, Statkraft Markets GmbH
- 16:55 Cross Border Flows. Importance for the European Power-Price-Building Mechanisms
Dr. Błażej Radomski, Head of Analysis - Germany, Markedskraft
- 17:10 The Business Sector as Change Agent for Energy Transition
Tom Lindberg, Managing Director, ECOHZ
- 17:25 Hydrogen as an Integrated Part of the Future Energy and Transport System
Bjørn Simonsen, Vice President, Market Development Nel Hydrogen
- 17:30 Q&A Session
- 17:50 Closing Remarks
Elisabeth Walaas, Norwegian Ambassador to Germany
- 18:00 Reception and Buffet Dinner hosted by Elisabeth Walaas, Norwegian Ambassador to Germany

The conference will be held in English